

'Foldables'

A fun way to have students explore and record their understandings, on any maths topic! Start with an A4 piece of paper, set to landscape position and fold in each side to the centre. Then cut through the middle of each flap to create four opening flaps. Headings on the outside, information on the inside!

